REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF CHILDRENS HOPE FOUNDATION

Trustees of Childrens Hope Foundation have pleasure in presenting their report and financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2012.

Objects of the Charity

Children's Hope Foundation is a national charity, which was established in December 1996 to provide equipment, facilities and grants for children who were disadvantaged by disability, illness or extreme circumstances and for the relief of poverty and advancement of education.

Our mission is to improve the quality of life of children and young people affected by their illness, disability or poverty, in a responsive and age appropriate manner by responding in a practical way to the needs of the children hardest hit by their situation.

Structure Governance and Management

Children's Hope Foundation is a registered charity (Reg. No.1060409) and a company limited by guarantee, governed by its Memorandum and Articles of Association. The trust deed provides for a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 12 trustees and the board currently consists of 3 trustees who manage the business of Children's Hope Foundation. The trustees receive no remuneration for their services to Children's Hope Foundation.

To further develop and strengthen the mix of skills on the board, current members continue to work towards the recruitment and appointment of new trustees, with appropriate experience, including legal, personnel, advertising and media/PR. The Chairman along with the Chief Executive will be responsible for the induction, of any new trustee, which would include awareness of a trustee's responsibilities, the governing document, administrative procedures and history and mission of the charity. New trustees would also receive copies of the previous year's annual report and accounts and a copy of the Charity Commission leaflet 'The Essential Trustee; What You Need to Know'. New trustees will also complete a skills assessment and will be expected to undertake free training on-line to help them be effective in their role.

Risk Management

In the opinion of the trustees and with the benefit of experience, there are adequate internal controls in place to cover any significant risks to the Charity. They will, however, continue to monitor and review the risk assessment process on an ongoing basis.

Activities and Achievements

During the year Childrens Hope Foundation has continued to support individuals and institutions in 3 main areas, equipment, education and welfare. As planned, the trustees have continued to develop relationships with equipment suppliers which now enables applicants to select the equipment best suited to the child, either on-line or through a local store, with delivery made direct to the beneficiary and invoices sent to and settled directly by the charity. In view of the current economic situation and the reduction in charity income, the appointment of a beneficiary liaison officer, to meet families and deliver equipment that has been funded by the charity, has been delayed until existing income streams have improved and further streams developed.

In the area of Equipment, the charity has continued to support children with disability with the provision of equipment to help or improve their mobility and/or quality of life. As in previous years, the requests have been varied and have included items as varied as pushchairs, buggies, motorised trikes and chairs for children with severe mobility issues and including an Eclipse Oxygen Concentrator for a young girl, which enabled her to enjoy many things we take for granted including holidays with her family. This year too, the charity has been able to help 2 children whose condition required a "Second Skin Splinting Suit", improving posture and muscle tone as well as preventing further deformities. The number of children who have benefitted from funding equipment like this has again increased from the previous year. Working with an organisation dedicated to getting children with disability involved in sport, we have been able to help many hundreds of children engage in various activities and as a result of our funding many more children will continue to benefit for years to come.

In the area of Education, the charity has focused on the provision of computer equipment for children missing their education through illness or disability and this year we have been able to help many children with computers and/or other computer equipment. Following a further recommendation from one of our volunteers we were able to provide computer equipment, including Pc's, printers and scanners along with a range of suitable software, for a small group whose aim is to provide help for children, who are having difficulty at school and those in need of after school activities, to improve their life opportunities. In addition, the laptop computers available for loan to children and young people missing school through illness or exclusion have continued to prove popular. As yet the laptops remain in operation but at the end of their useful life, the schools taking part will have the opportunity to select a school or child in the third world who can benefit from these laptops, when refurbished. Educational visits have again helped more than 200 children enjoy extra-curricular activities and ensured that in a number of cases, children who might otherwise have missed their school's trip have been able to accompany their school friends.

As part of our international efforts we have helped many medical and education facilities, through the provision of equipment and facilities, in many parts of the world including Africa and India. In addition to this direct help, we continue to help a group of 10 children, adopted by us in 2011, in several areas and provinces of Africa and India, by financing their education for a further 4 years.

In the area of Welfare, assistance has been mainly for household items or for holidays/days out. Many children with certain disabilities have reason to require very frequent change of clothes and bedding. Whilst this may seem to be a family problem, it does place a huge burden on families, particularly where they are unable to finance such a huge expenditure. We understand this need and will help as much as possible to reduce the burden and the strain on the family. In the past year the charity has been able to help many children enduring extreme circumstances. With tremendous support from the local business community we have enabled several schools, to attend extra-curricular activities including school trips and pantomime visits.

As part of our on-going commitment to children with special needs and their families the charity are pleased to announce that during the year we purchased the first of our static holiday homes in which families are able to enjoy a week of respite and fun for all the family. Although not disabled adapted, the holiday home is disabled friendly and accessible by wheelchair. During this current year, although not purchased until July several families have enjoyed such breaks during school holidays, fully funded by the charity. We hope, with the success of our dedicated appeal, to further develop this project with more holiday homes in different locations throughout the UK.

Financial Review, Policy and Reserves

The attached financial statements have been prepared to comply with the requirements of the Statement of Recommended Practice (the SORP) issued in March 2005.

Total incoming resources of £203,769 show a significant fall in income, mainly as a result of the fall in donations but more particularly, the board's decision to sever the links with volunteers working overseas. This decision was taken by the trustees because their ability to determine the distribution of the funds was to be removed and it was felt that under those circumstances the link could not continue.

Collections, in line with economic conditions have fallen slightly and may fall again in the future however income from commercial participators continues to increase year on year. The charity achieved no income from Charitable Trusts this year as a new campaign had not been designed. This however will change in the coming year as a new campaign is now being designed and will be implemented in the next fiscal year. Given the continuing economic conditions this reduction in income had been anticipated and it is hoped that development of diverse funding streams may compensate for reduced income in these areas, in the future. The charity will continue to develop a strong fundraising strategy and trustees, together with key staff and volunteers will continue to undertake appropriate training courses in the coming two years to progress this, further, thus ensuring the charity's future development.

Fund-raising costs of £34,890 showed a small increase but against a reduced income, had the effect of increasing the %age of fundraising costs against income. However, the trustees are pleased that due to the tight controls on expenditure in this area the actual cost has not significantly increased. In the future however, the trustees will need to consider the cost of producing literature, which will help fundraising staff generate funds from the corporate sector. As a result of the tremendous efforts of everyone in the charity, the trustees are extremely pleased to report that, despite the reduced income, we have been able to maintain a good level of spending on charitable activities £181,530 representing over 89% of the charity's total income. The trustees are again confident that efforts will continue to maintain and if possible improve this further.

Childrens Hope Foundation is still fully committed to the following;

- Raising adequate unrestricted funds, which will enable it to fulfil the need of a disadvantaged child within 3 months of a request being received.
- Continuing to broaden the funding mix, which will increase its' voluntary income and enable it to reduce the waiting time to within 1 month of a request being made.

The trustees' aim has been to build a reserve equivalent to a minimum of six months expenditure, thus always being able to fulfil any request promised, irrespective of income at any particular moment in time. The trustees are pleased to report that sufficient reserves are now in place to ensure this aim.

Notwithstanding the above policy, the trustees will always, as a matter of priority, apply reserves for the benefit of children and young persons disadvantaged by illness, disability or poverty whilst maintaining an appropriate level of reserves at any given point in time.

Principal Funding sources

Street collections have remained the charity's main source of income as well as voluntary donations made direct to the charity. Partnership with commercial participators has continued to strengthen and has resulted in a further increase year on year. The trustees are confident that this will continue to build in the coming year.

Trust fundraising has not yet recovered to the levels achieved prior to the economic downturn, however a new appeal is now ready and will be launched in January 2013 and it is hoped that this will be successful and contribute to overall charitable income. Two campaigns are planned, to gain funds for general distribution and a further appeal for restricted funds to develop the static holiday home project.

Charity events have this year been hugely successful and have contributed substantially to the charity's overall income. It is not certain that this level of event income can be sustained in the next financial year although it will however, be a valuable contribution none the less.

As a step towards achieving a regular and sustainable additional income source, the board agreed to use some of its' reserve capital to invest in a charity retail outlet. This has been based in Ealing Broadway, West London as it was felt that the location, in terms of donations and customers, would be the preferred choice. It would also enable the chairman, Seema Kumar, to maintain a close connection with the shop as she lived relatively close by.

Although the trustees' aim is to develop legacy fundraising to strengthen our funding mix, it has not yet been possible to implement any more than initial plans as it is felt that training and perhaps third party input would provide the necessary skills to fully implement. Another area in which the board feel that there is a skill shortage is in the area of 'Payroll Giving'.

Unfortunately, because of the time spent on establishing the new charity shop and the static home, training plans have had to be postponed but it is the board's intention to implement training in various areas in the coming 12 – 24 months. In the meantime though, huge efforts continue to be made to develop new and creative funding streams to secure a strong and sustainable future for the charity.

Employees and Volunteers

The charity employs 2 full time staff. Each member of staff undertakes more than one area of activity and costs apportioned on the basis of an estimate of the proportion of time spent by staff on those activities. The allocation has been based on the Trustees' judgement as to the nature of the expenditure and the level of activity carried out in each area. In addition, ten volunteers, in the areas of fund-raising and administration, who receive no remuneration, support the charity. The value of this support has not been included in these financial statements.

Future Plans

The Trustees intend to continue to provide support in a similar way to the recent past continuing the emphasis on three areas of giving but retaining flexibility as to the timing and scale of support. The trustees also intend to continue to raise funds, in support of its objectives, in the same manner in the future. However, as was mentioned earlier the trustees have a number of plans to develop the charity in the coming and subsequent years.

The grants advisory committee, whose task was to advise the board on the effective and timely disbursement of funds to beneficiaries, has not, for several reasons, including ill health been able to meet. The task therefore of deciding upon priority and need has been returned to the board for the moment, until such time as a new committee can be recruited and trained. In addition efforts will continue, to recruit further committees, reporting to the board on many other aspects of its activities including, fundraising, marketing, corporate partnerships and events.

Although the charity enjoys national status, it has always been the aim of the trustees to spend the funds in the area in which they have been raised. Whilst this is entirely dependent on the areas from which beneficiaries come, the trustees are still determined to achieve this aim. During the year staff have followed the trustee's guidance and have established relationships with local authorities and retail outlets in order to engage them with the distribution of help for special needs children in their local area. In the coming year this will continue and the trustees are confident that this will prove beneficial not only to the charity, but also its' supporters and users.

Statement of Trustee's Responsibilities

Charity Law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity, and its financial activities for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees are required to,

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operational existence.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 1993. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner

The Trustees intend to ask the existing auditors to undertake the independent examination of the charity in the following year.

Approved by the Board and signed on its behalf.

21 December 2012

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF CHILDRENS HOPE FOUNDATION

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2012 set out on pages four to ten.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 and 387 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of Sections 394 and 395 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
